He married (2) MARY ELIZABETH RHODES August 26, 1855 in Macon, GA. She was born December 23, 1835.

Notes for CHARLES PAULHILL REYNOLDS:

Charles P, Reynolds (the P. stands for Paulhill) I have been told, and is not Peyton after his father's name, as I had always thought. Charles Paulhill Reynolds was in the Confederate Army in the Partisan Rangers as a Sgt. Co. H 53 rd Regiment of Al. He was first inlisted as of August 18, 1862 at Elba, AL by Capt E.P. Fleming for the period of the WAR. He died in a prison at Camp Chase, U.S.A. General Hospital near Columbus, Ohio. Date of death listed as Nov 5 1864. He is buried 1/3 mile South c.c.

Cause of death listed as Small Pox. Number of Grave looks like 410 on the papers I have.

The town of Geneva, AL has out up a Memorial Statue in his honor.

Here is some information on the Regiment that Charles P. served in during the Civil War:

53rd Alabama Cavalry Regiment (Partisan Rangers)

The 53rd was organized by increasing the 1st Cavalry Battalion to regimental size at Montgomery on 5 November 1862. Recruits were from Autauga, Coffee, Coosa, Dale, Dallas, Lauderdale, Lowndes, Macon, Monroe, Montgomery, Pike, Tallapoosa and Wilcox Counties. It proceeded in a few weeks to Mississippi. In moving from Columbus, Ms to Decatur, Al., in Lawrence County, Al., a portion of the regiment was there equipped and proceeded to join General Earl Van Dorn. This Battalion was in the fighting at Thompson's Station, and at Brentwood. The regiment was engaged in the fight with Union General, Grenville Dodge at Town Creek and in the pursuit of Union Col. Abel Streight. Soon after, the 53rd joined the main army at Dalton as part of General Moses W. Hannon's Brigade, General John Kelly's Division. It operated on the right of the army as it fell back toward Atlanta and was engaged in constant duty. When Union General William T. Sherman reached Atlanta, the 53rd was the principal force engaged in the daring raid in his rear, whereby a valuable train was destroyed. It was then at the heels of Sherman as he devastated Georgia and the Carolinas, and it took part in the last operations of the war in that quarter. It surrendered a small number with General Joseph E. Johnston at Durham Station. Orange County, NC, on 26 April 1865.

Braswell 10

On May 1, 1668, Mr. George Gwilliam and Mr. Richard Izard qualified to act as overseers of Robert Bracewell's two sons until they might be of age to act as their father's executors, being bonded by Mr. Thomas Green and Richard Penny.<sup>11</sup> The widow of the Reverend Bracewell may have been named Rebecca according to a record of January 10, 1669/70, when Rebeccah Izard signed an account of the estate of the late Mr. Robert Braswell being disbursed by Richard Izard,<sup>12</sup> but this would imply that her first husband had been Roger Bagnall, Robert Bracewell her second husband and Richard Izard her third husband.

The account of Robert Bracewell's estate included the cost of finishing the new mill, as well as payments to Ambrose Bennett, Captain John Jennings, Major Nicholas Hill, Jeremiah Martin, Captain Joseph Bridger, etc.

The inventory and appraisal of the estate of Mr. Robert Bracewell was made by Giles Driver, Benjamin Bealle, Robert Coleman, and Francis Ayres on May 11, 1668, and was recorded on June 9, 1668, in the Isle of Wight County Court. The items appraised came to 19,800 pounds worth of tobacco, to which were added 16,000 pounds worth of good debts, or a total of 35,800 pounds of tobacco. "An old Boate" and the following cattle were not valued and included in the preceding total: Robert Stoackes, 8 cows, 2 bulls, and 11 heifers; William West, a cow and yearling; and a cow each in the hands of Colonel Robert Pitt, Mr. John Pitt, Mr. Nicholas Smith, Mr. Thomas Taberer, Mr. John Hardy, Mr. Daniel Boucher, and Mr. John Viocars.

The personal property of the Reverend Robert Bracewell was listed with the following items: 5 pairs of shoes, some black broadcloth, some

BRASWELL FAMILY

Braswell 15

According to J. C. Eganagan, History of Gwinnett County, Georgia 1818-1943 (Hapeville, Georgia, 1943), Vol. I, pp. 323, 324, the Bracewells emigrated from Ireland early in the 1700's and settled on Tar River, near Tarborough, and reared sons (1) Richard and (2) Robert.

Richard Bracewell married first _____ and had a son Robert Bracewell who served through the Revolutionary War, "during which he made a powder horn upon which he carved his initials and that horn is still in the family." In the year 1764 or 1765, Richard married secondly Agnes Proctor, by whom he had eight sons and a daughter. Soon after the war he moved to Georgia and settled in Burke County on Briar Creek, later removing to the Oconee River in Washington (now Laurens) County.

1. Elizabeth Bracewell. "She is said to be the last daughter to be born in the Bracewell family in this country."
2. Richard Bracewell married in 1793 Charity Seaborough.
  - a. JAMES Bracewell was born on June 5, 1794, in Allen's Fort, Ga. (SEE NEXT PAGE)
  - b. Wiley Bracewell.
  - c. Richard Bracewell.
  - d. William Bracewell.

The first error is that the Bracewells (or Braswells) were from London and had been in Virginia since 1649/50, Isle of Wight Co., before migrating to Edgecombe County. Richard Braswell who died in Edgecombe County early in 1772 had married Elizabeth and had five sons and three daughters. His son Richard (IV) was an adult by 1773 and living in Dobbs County; subject to further research, it appears likely that he was the Richard who married Agnes Proctor (not identified as yet), and that

Some writers have deduced the name Braswell from "Braisnelle" in the Domesday Book (1140-1159), but the name is found as "Bracewell" in the early records of Yorkshire. It seems certain that all the Bracewells and Braswells of England and of the United States descend from this identical stock.

Sir Bernard Burke's The General Armory (London, 1884) does not describe any coat of arms for this surname in either spelling. However, it is not impossible that one does actually exist and was inadvertently omitted by him.

THE REVEREND ROBERT BRASWELL, SR.

Braswell 30

Robert Bracewell, son of Richard Bracewell, Gent., of London, was born in the year 1612. On February 22, 1627/28, he became a student at Hart Hall at Oxford University. He was graduated from there with the B. A. degree on November 3, 1631.<sup>1</sup> The circumstances of his entering the ministry and of his life during the next twenty years have not been examined, but it is presumed that active sympathy for the Cavalier cause was responsible for his quiet removal to Virginia about the end of 1643. He purchased a plantation on Blackwater River in Isle of Wight County and assumed the pastorate in the Parish of Lawne's Creek.

On April 29, 1650, Robert Bracewell and Ann (A) Bennett witnessed an agreement of Ambrose (A) Bennett with Thomas (W) Webb for the use of a mill and one acre of land and an adjacent sixty acres "upon the path that goeth to ye Church" and bounded by the Run, said Bennett, and Mr. Robert Bracewell, for thirty years, in return for 3,000 pounds of tobacco in cask and a hogshead of ground meal.<sup>2</sup>

On November 18, 1651, Lt. John Upton and wife Margaret Upton deeded to William Underwood 400 acres adjoining 300 acres on the Freshett already sold to Robert Bracewell, Clarke, witnessed by Isaac Cavalier and Thomas Soott.<sup>3</sup>

On January 16, 1651/52, the will of Captain John Upton bequeathed land adjoining Ambrose Bennett, "reserving 300 acres which Mr. Robert Braswell hath."<sup>3-A</sup>

Robert Bracewell was elected to the House of Burgesses of Virginia in 1653, but since it was not considered proper that a minister hold a political office, "It is ordered by this present Grand Assembly, that Mr. Robert Bracewell, Clark, be suspended . . . since it is unpresidential and may produce bad consequences." <sup>4</sup> On June 10, 1658, Thomas Wilkinson made a large patent on Patomeck Creek and used the name Robert Breswell as a headright. <sup>5</sup> On January 20, 1661/62, Robert Braswell and Joseph Bridger owned land adjoining a tract of 300 acres patented by Richard Izard. <sup>6</sup> On February 16, 1662/63, Thomas Poole secured a patent of land adjoining Mr. Robert Bracewell. <sup>7</sup> On June 9, 1664, Robert Bracewell appointed Mr. William Thompson to serve as his attorney in a suit with Thomas Hipkins; witnessed by Robert Stoakes. <sup>8</sup> On June 28, 1664, William and Elizabeth Thompson sold Richard Izard some land bought from Mrs. Margaret Upton adjoining Robert Dunstar and Mr. Robert Bracewell. <sup>9</sup>

Robert Bracewell made his will in Isle of Wight County on February 15, 1667/68, and it was probated on May 1, 1668: (a) daughter Jane Stockes and her children, 3 cows; (b) daughter Rebecca West, 2 cows with calves; (c) son and executor, but under age, Robert Bracewell, residue of the estate not bequeathed, to be put to school to read and write, to have half of 700 acres "where I now live" and 600 acres on the Western Branch of Nansemond River; (d) son and executor, under age, Richard Bracewell, to be put to school to read and write, to share the 700 and 600 tracts above with his brother Robert Bracewell, and to possess the new mill when it is finished; (e) servant Elizabeth Hall, one heifer at her freedom; (f) daughter Ann Bagnall, cow and calf, and a calf to her first child if she has any; (g) friends Mrs. Richard Izard and George Guillim (Williams) to act as guardians while the children are under age, and to have forty shillings each "to buy them each one ring"; (h) witnesses Richard (x) Izard and George Guillen. <sup>10</sup>

Richard Braswell, Sr., son of the Reverend Robert Braswell, Sr., and wife Rebecca _____, was born about 1652 in Isle of Wight County, Virginia. He married Sarah _____.

On March 14, 1673/74, Richard (R) Bracewell, Planter, and wife Sarah (x) Bracewell deeded to William West, Planter, for a sum of tobacco in cask a tract of 100 acres adjoining Robert Bracewell and now in the tenure of Anthony Hosier by gift of the late Mr. Robert Bracewell (from a patent of 400 acres owned by the late Robert Bracewell; witnessed by Robert Ruffin and George (G) Peiroe.<sup>1</sup> On February 7, 1673/74, Richard (R) and Sarah (x) Bracewell had sold Thomas Green for 6,000 pounds of tobacco in cask half of 400 acres on Bracewell's Mill Run between Mr. Izard and Thomas Pool that had once belonged to Mr. John Upton but had been deeded to him (said Bracewell) by his late father on January 16, 1663/64; witnessed by Timothy Walker, Benjamin Collins, and Jeremiah Martin.

On December 9, 1674, Richard and Sarah (x) Bracewell, the former a son of Robert Bracewell, Clerk, sold Thomas Green for 3,000 pounds of tobacco in cask the 100 acres remaining from the 400 acres given him by his late father on January 16, 1660/61 (200 had already been sold to Thomas Green, and 100 acres on the other side of the "run" had been sold to Thomas Green, and 100 acres on the other side of the "run" had been sold to William West); witnessed by Michael Bland and George (x) May.<sup>3</sup> About the first of October, 1677, Richard (R) Bracewell signed the Isle of Wight petition for a pardon to William West who had escaped from the County leaving a wife, children, and certain property, after participating in Bacon's Rebellion.<sup>4</sup>

First of all, what are land entries? I thought they had something to do with grants but there are no grants on record that tally with any of these entires. The Henry "Bracowell" above is no doubt the same one who attempted to patent land in 1789 on the Cape Fear River "south of Buck Creek", Voic File No. 029. I find no Buck Creek anywhere in the area but Bush Creek and "all Creek" are in what is now Lee County, northeast of Sanford. They are more or less parallel, flowing into the Cape Fear. Buckhorn Creek flows into the Cape Fear between them from the opposit direction. In any case this all seems to be in the same general location whereas Raft Swamp, where William Braswell attempted to patent land in 1756 (Voil. File No. 076), is about 50 miles south of there. This, as well as the difference in dates, suggests that the Raft Swamp William was another one. In 1755 William Carver patented land on Raft Swamp and in 1758 William Carver sold land on Raft Swamp to William Dreggers (Cumberland Deed Book 1, p. 335) What do you think the possibility is that William Braswell of the Void Patent is William Carver Braswell. (I am sure that is who William Carver of the Raft Swamp patent and sale was.) Would he have attempted to patent land under the name Braswell in 1756 after successfully patenting land under the name Carver in 1755? Or maybe that's why the attempt was unsuccessful. Anyway I think this is a different William from the one in the Bush Creek area 25 years later and (ink note - That one is) certainly not William Carver-Braswell as he died in 1767.

Although I had collected a few early generations of Braswell, I had not paid any any attention to the South Carolina branch of a later date, of whom I note several groups:

Edgefield County----	Brittain Brazel (p. 65)	2-2-3-0
	Valentina Brazel (p. 66)	1-1-3-1
	Sarah Brazell (p. 62)	0-0-4-1

	Wood Brazeel (p. 57)	1-1-2-0
Fairfield County----	William Brazeel (p. 22)	1-1-2-0
Richland County----	Hannah Brazwell (p. 27)	1-1-2-0 0-2-2-3
Prince George Parish-	Henry Braswell (p. 53)	1-3-3-0
South Orangeburg Dist.	Charles Brazel (p. 102)	1-3-4-0
	George Brazel (p. 99)	1-2-1-0
	Jacob Brazel (p. 101)	1-0-1-0

Thank you for the Jacob Braswell deeds. That is no doubt the one mentioned in the following Land Entry (Cumberland County Land Entries, 1778-1795, now in Archives, Raleigh):

30 January 1779 - No. 249. Felp Smith - 240 a. on south side of Cape Fear River including plantation where JACOB BRAZIL formerly lived.

There is a Jacob Brazil in the 1790 census, Johnston County, who also might be the same. If so he certainly did shuttle back and forth between Cumberland and Johnston.

Two more of these Land Entries.

30 January 1779 - No. 252. Henry Bracewell - 300 a. on both sides of Fall Creek including Wm. Dickenson's old field.

20 February 1779 - No. 322. Henry Brazwell - 100 a. on the waters of Bush Creek joining Bud (?) Wm. Brazwells line and Chatham line.

This Jesse must have moved from Pike Co. Ala. ~~back~~ to Macon Co. Ga. and was perhaps living with his youngest daughter Mahala who married Rev. Joseph Edwards. They had a daughter Kate who did put a marker at Jesse & Rebecca's grave - Travelers Rest is about two miles out of Montezuma, Macon Co. Ga. It was badly overgrown when I was there, but I understand some civic club was trying to clear & clean it up. I would like to go back there sometime in Feb. when leaves are off trees.

In your listing of J. J. Braswell you have a son named Jeff - This is the first time I've seen that name in the Braswell line.

I have a daughter Mrs Tom N. (Sue) Haynes who lives in Panama City, Fla. Several years ago she was at a meeting one night and saw a man whom she thought was her cousin from N.C. When she went to speak to him she found it was not, but was Herman (Jack) Braswell. He was born in Ala. His father was Jefferson

During the business meeting two new resolutions were passed and two new offices installed; Hurschel Braswell of Winona as Vice-Chairman and Roma

Lee Braswell Kelly of Mayflower, Ark. as chaplain. George Pinkney Brswell, who is 94, was presented a scroll in caligraphy, giving a brief history of the Braswell name from 1588 to present. This prompted George to respond with "I thank all my kinfolks for this-live a good life, work hard, love the Lord and your fellowman, and you will live to be my age and older-I shall see you next year". When George was told by the family that during his 40 years of research he had found only one that lived to be 110, he quipped, "I'll bet on record". A team of commercial photographers from Jackson were there to take portraits in 8 by 10 color. There were too many present for one picture, which was good as it was broken up into grandfather, father and family shots. One young couple wanted theirs with their first child.

All future reunions will be at the Community House in Winona on the third Sunday of July each year. Reservations for 1984 have been made and paid for. Dr. Bob Russum, Professor at Mississippi State did the scroll for George.

The final session of the eight-week genealogy course at the Longview YMCA will take place tomorrow night, March 22. Most of the 30 members who enrolled in January have been on hand each Monday night and most have seemed to enjoy the get-togethers.

I appreciate the privilege of the YMCA invitation to serve as instructor, and it is my hope that some of the material we have discussed, will be of help to these men and women who seem so interested in their ancestry and the part their forebears played in pioneering our great and wonderful America. I hope their interest will continue and that they will go to much more advanced areas of study in genealogy than can be touched on in a series of brief sessions.

Chapter VI

Jesse Braswell
(circa 1765 - circa 1839)

~~Jesse Braswell, son of Richard and Elizabeth (Dulaney?)~~
Braswell, was born about 1765 in Edgecombe County, North Carolina, and later removed to Wayne County with his parents, where they were living at least as early as 1780<sup>1</sup>.

Jesse Braswell received from the estate of his father 200 acres of a tract of land patented by Elias Fort, and 30 acres of the manor plantation<sup>3</sup>. A further distribution assigned to Jesse Braswell certain slaves, household goods, and cattle<sup>4</sup>. On February 7, 1799, Jesse Braswell was among those who signed a later distribution to certain grandchildren of Richard Braswell<sup>5</sup>.

In 1790 David Braswell, brother of Jesse, was living next door to Priscilla Blow, widow of Benjamin Blow. Family records and Hays' History of Macon County Georgia<sup>6</sup> list the wife of Jesse Braswell as Rebecca Blow, whom he married about 1791.

Jesse Braswell is listed as head of a household in the 1800 census of Wayne County, North Carolina, as follows:<sup>7</sup>

Males: Under 10: 2; 26-45: 1; Females: Under 10: 3; 26-45: 1.

He is listed on the same page with his brother, Shadrack Braswell, and with his mother, Elizabeth Braswell, the latter of whom is listed as being over forty-five years of age and living alone.

On December 24, 1798, Jesse Braswell of Wayne County, North Carolina deeded to Henry Yelverton forty acres of land on the north side of Nawhunta Swamp adjoining a patent of Elias Fort and Yelverton's corner. The land was originally granted to Elias Fort in April, 1765. Witnesses were Noah Yelverton and William Martin. Deed was recorded in January court, 1799<sup>8</sup>.

On December 24, we find a repetition of the same deed<sup>9</sup>.

Wayne County and is described as "of Wayne County".

Jesse Braswell is listed as head of a household in the 1810 census of Anson County, North Carolina, as follows:<sup>16</sup>

Braswell 49

Males: Under 10: 3; 16-26: 1; 26-45: 1
Females: Under 10: 2; 10-16: 2; 26-45: 1

~~In 1813, Jesse Braswell removed from Anson County, North Carolina, and eventually went to Georgia. During a part of the decade of the 1820s he was living in Washington County, Georgia, where members of the Edwards family were living.~~

In 1827 Jesse Braswell and three of his sons, James, Benjamin, and Jesse, drew land in Jones County, Georgia, in the land lottery of that year.<sup>17</sup> In the lottery list he is specifically called "Jesse Braswell, Sr."

Jesse Braswell is listed as head of a household in the 1830 census of Talbot County, Georgia, as follows:<sup>18</sup>

Males: 5-10: 1; 60-70: 1; Females: 20-30: 1

He was living next door to his son, Benjamin Braswell, who was between thirty and forty years of age.

Jesse Braswell later removed to Macon County, Georgia, and the following sentence from Hays' History of Macon County, Georgia,<sup>19</sup> may enable us to visualize his manner of living: "It is well to record some of these distinguished pioneers who lived in lordly fashion on their plantations."

Jesse Braswell died about 1839<sup>20</sup>, and he and his wife are buried at Travelers' Rest.<sup>21</sup> Hays' History<sup>22</sup> gives an interesting account of this settlement, which states in part:

Chapter 6 - P - 14

Travelers' Rest

Braswell 50

"Barnard's Crossing, about two miles below Montezuma, was on the old Indian Path from Columbus to St. Mary's and had been in use for many years. The beautiful spring and pleasant grove on the east side of the river attracted the traveler and it was more or less of a camping ground in the last part of the last century. Miles Patrick relates that a party from South Carolina moving westward came to the river and, finding the river up and crossing upon the flat impossible, encamped there and called it 'Travelers' Rest.' A settlement soon followed and Traveler's Rest became the social and religious center for the planters for many miles around.

"The very name breathes of romance and peace and homely hospitality. In the 1830's and 1840's, in the glowing sunset of evening, Travelers' Rest offered a haven....A stage coach made this same route, running between Macon and Albany, by way of Travelers' Rest, crossing the Flint River by ferry....An octagonal-shaped post supported a sundial which marked for the traveler the passing of the hours. This post is still standing, in good state of preservation, to point out the exact location of old Travelers' Rest.

"....Travelers' Rest had a wider scope than its immediate limits. The membership of its churches included the planters for many miles around....It is well to record some of these distinguished pioneers who lived in lordly fashion on their plantations....

"John Edwards and his wife Edith Clark, from Virginia, were living on Horsehead Creek before 1839. Their son, Rev. Jasper<sup>2</sup> Edwards, and his wife, Mahala Braswell, of North Carolina, together with Mrs. Edwards' father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Braswell, no doubt worshiped at Travelers' Rest, as Mr. and Mrs. Braswell are buried there; but the Edwards are buried in one of the oldest church yards in the county, St. Pauls."

Any will, deeds, or other records of Jesse Braswell in Macon County have been destroyed, as the court house burned in 1857. Fortunately, however, family records have preserved the names of his children<sup>24</sup>.

Issue of Jesse and Rebecca (Blow) Braswell (not in primogenitive order):

NAME for Benj. Blow probably Rebecca's Father

1. Benjamin Braswell: oldest son; born between 1791 and 1794 in Wayne County, North Carolina; removed to Georgia with his parents; received land in Jones County, Georgia, in the landlottery of 1827; is listed in the 1860 census of Upson County, Georgia, and in the 1840 census of Talbot County, Georgia.

<sup>24</sup>Family records that have descended to Miss Kate Edwards list the names of the children. Also a family record written entirely in the handwriting of Elbert H. Braswell (born in 1832), son of Jesse L. Braswell, and grandson of Jesse and Rebecca (Blow) Braswell, and signed by Elbert H. Braswell, lists the names of the children.

1704 Quit Rents of VA: RICHARD BRASWELL owner of 100 acres in Isle of Wight Co was listed on "Her Majestie's Quit Rent Rolls." He was the only BRASWELL on this 1704 list in all VA.

Virginia Magazine of History and Biography:

18 July 1710. RICHARD BRASWELL was mentioned in the boundary line proceedings between and North Carolina. He stated >>> that he had recently applied for 1000 acres on the Maherrin River and he thought that his land was in VA but it had recently been proved that the tract lay in North Carolina instead.

Barbara,
Will reply here so that this will stay on the board longer.
Thanks for posting this information. I'm researching Brazle (another variation--also seen as Brazil on census) in IL.
My gggg-gf was Richard Brazle b. abt. 1792, possibly in Greenville, SC. He m. 3 Jun 1819, Madison Co, IL, Lodicea Enyart b. abt. 1799, KY. According to some information I've received from others, Richard's parents were John Braswell and Dianah _____. John Braswell's father is reported to be Richard Braswell.

Haven't spent a lot of time on this line, but have saved the information to disk for future use. Thanks again.

Bracewell/Braswell names? There are many variations on these names as well as the BREAZEALE name I am seeking. Everything from Braccelle to Brazil. Some pronounce it brazze (dazzle) others Bra zeele unfortunately most of our early ancestors were illiterate, couple this with Census takers and tax collectors who spelled the names as they heard them, it is no wonder we have the mess we have today. I wonder if in 2065 those of us who worked on the 1990 census will be cussed out as well. I certainly won't care. <G>

I have some additional info that I am not going to be able to post, if you need some help, let me know and I will go thru the balance of what I do have.
